9/27/2007 -- Secondary firm Newbury Partners LLC has added Warren Symon as vice president

Symon previously worked with Quilvest Private Equity and for secondary buyout firm Pomona Capital. While at Pomona, Symon performed due diligence on transactions involving the purchase of leveraged buyout and venture capital fund interests and direct company portfolios. Prior to joining Pomona Capital, Symon was a research associate in Bear Stearns & Co.'s equity research department.

Stamford, Conn.-based Newbury Partners was formed in 2006 by the departure of Auda Private Equity LLC's secondary team. As of July, the firm had raised $500 million for its debut fund, on its way to a $750 million target, according LBO Wire records.
